

RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Spreading and Movement is Gaining Ground Rapidly.

NOVELIST GORKI HAS BEEN ARRESTED.

Reval and Kishineff Now Witnessing Strike Movement—Quiet at St. Petersburg, But the Interior Is Assuming Alarming Proportions.

THESE TROUBLES NOW CONFRONT THE CZAR.

- * Revolution in Russia.
- * War with Japan.
- * Uprising brewing in Finland.
- * General strike in St. Petersburg.
- * Secret rebellion, open rioting in Moscow.
- * Revolt in Poland.
- * Recruits attacked in provinces.
- * Consequences of firing on British trawlers.
- * Students riots.
- * Attacks on governors of provinces.
- * Nihilists active at home and abroad.

DIFFERENCE IN TIME IS ABOUT SEVEN HOURS.

- * The difference in time between St. Petersburg and Cincinnati which is practically the difference between the time at the Russian capital and that in Newark is about 7 hours and 15 minutes.
- * A dispatch dated in St. Petersburg at 2 o'clock this morning was really written while the people of Newark were eating their evening meal yesterday. It will be well to remember this in reading the St. Petersburg dispatches and confusion in dates will be obviated.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—The strike continues to spread, and with it the belief increases that revolution must follow. There have been no sensational developments over night, but in the interior the movement is gaining ground by rapid strides. Disorders are reported imminent in many centers. The situation in Poland this morning seems more menacing than in any other part of the empire. The entire population there is well armed owing to a systematic organization of the revolutionary committees. In the present state of disorders the Poles see a possibility of obtaining their freedom. Reval and Kishineff were today added to the list of cities whose workmen have joined the strike movement. In Reval all is quiet, but in Kishineff the movement has developed some disorders. Moscow remains quiet. The strike there is not moving rapidly, but the Socialists are moving among the workers and it is believed the first encounter between the troops parading the streets of the ancient capital and the workmen will put a new aspect on affairs and revolution in full form will develop. The St. Petersburg strikers and sympathizers have a new burden by the appointment of General Trepoft as governor-general of the capital. Trepoft is known to be the agent of the Grand Dukes, who, in the present crisis, seem more powerful than the czar himself, and who are avowedly determined to crush the spirit of the strikers no matter what measures are necessary. Trepoft is a man of extreme cruelty. An important development has been the arrest of Maxim Gorki, the author, who has been a leader of the down-trodden people, for connection, according to report, with the movement for a provisional government. It is reported this morning that the czar is still at Tsarkooselo and is confined to his bed with nervous prostration. It is also stated that the infant heir to the throne is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Palace Reported Wrecked.

London, Jan. 25.—(Bulletin)—The London Daily Express has issued a 5-a.m. edition, in which appears a dispatch from Moscow, stating that the strikers in St. Petersburg have wrecked the palace of the Grand Duke Sergius.

CZAR'S THRONE

To Be Seized By the Grand Dukes For Vladimir, Think Prominent Russian Students.

London, Jan. 25.—Prominent Russian students view the uprising as a political insurrection and an attempt by the Grand Dukes, led by Grand Duke Vladimir, to depose the czar and seize the Russian throne for Vladimir.

VLADIMIR CABLES

That Reports From St. Petersburg of Occurrences There Are Greatly Exaggerated.

New York, Jan. 25.—In response to a direct request that the czar or his representatives should give to the American people some statement of how the czar and his ministers regard the situation in Russia, Grand Duke Vladimir cabled the New York American as follows:

"Palace of the Grand Duke Vladimir, St. Petersburg, 6.25 p. m., January 24, 1906.

"To the New York American, New York, U. S. A. Reports sent from St. Petersburg of the occurrences here have been much exaggerated. No doubt we are passing through an acute crisis, but we expect by energetic measures to restore order within a short time.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—A tramway car full of workmen was stopped last night in the Bolsboi Prospect by Cossacks. The workmen forced the Cossacks and a fight followed. Several were badly hurt.

Kiga, Russia, Jan. 25.—Most of the workers in the factories have quit work. All quiet. Kiga is one of the most important commercial ports of Russia.

Kishineff, Jan. 25.—Twenty rioters arrested. Disorders growing. The workmen are marching about the streets shouting: "We intend to revenge the Kishineff massacre."

Reval, Russia, Jan. 25.—The strike movement went into effect here today. The strikers are parading.

Moscow, Jan. 25.—The troops today are doing their utmost to prevent the strikers from assembling for a demonstration before the Kremlin. The strikers are determined to make an effort to concentrate in the square tonight, owing to his historic associations and the effect it would have on the populace. Near the square is the Bolshoi Moscow, the stone tribunal where the ancient municipal assembly met to deliberate on city affairs and where Ivan, the Terrible, was compelled to bow to the will of the people. Across the way is the house where Michael, the founder of the Romanoff dynasty was born. The authorities fear if the strikers get to the square the people will become fanatically influenced and serious outbreaks will follow.

dreams. Cossacks are clearing the streets with whips.

Prince Mirsky has resigned, but his resignation has not as yet been accepted, as it is difficult to find a substitute. The position has been offered to Prince Obolensky, who has declined. Obolensky is a member of the Imperial Council and was formerly Deputy Governor of Warsaw. Witte was also offered the post, but refused.

Among those killed yesterday was Miss Brinloff, daughter of the director of the Alexander Museum here.

Grand Duke Constantine presides at today's meeting of the press delegates. It is expected this will end the printers' strike.

Most of the victims of Sunday's massacre were buried last night, but many families can obtain no information as to the fate of relatives.

ORGANIZATION

In London and Paris to Lend Material and Moral Aid to Revolutionists.

London, Jan. 25.—(Bulletin)—It is stated in Russian revolutionary circles here that the organization is active in London and Paris arranging to supply funds and material for a general provincial revolt in Russia on Thursday or Friday of this week. The day of this revolt is expected to prove a far bloodier one than Sunday last. It will then be seen whether the rising is to be national or merely metropolitan. By that time it is expected a plain statement of the revolutionary aims, which have been printed by hundreds of thousands will have been circulated throughout western and southern Russia, and the peasants will all know just what are the bases of the uprising.

The difficulty encountered in smuggling these manifestoes into Russia in large quantities have retarded the movement thus far. From several of these revolutionists it is learned positively that a provisional government has been ready for several days. Reformers assert that two members of the existing government, who were known to have progressive views were recognized by General Trepoft, the new governor-general of St. Petersburg, and their arrests are expected today. It is realized the arrests by Trepoft of the leaders of the progressive movement in St. Petersburg has struck a heavy blow to the movement and the one hope of the progressives now is that the remainder of the prominent reformers will be able to retain their freedom and conduct the work of organization and agitation.

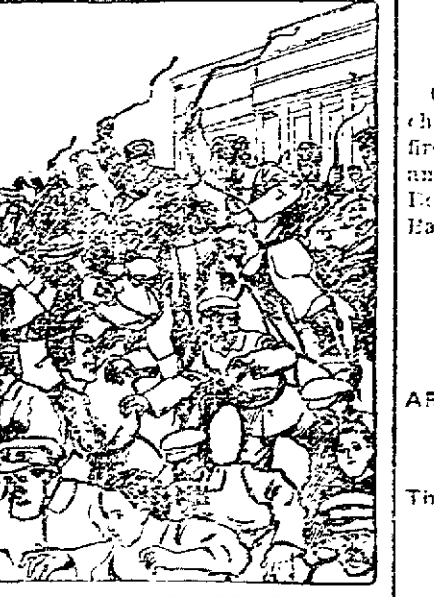

Moscow Workmen Recorders.

Moscow, Jan. 25.—(Bulletin)—2:30 p. m.—The workmen who yesterday evening refused to stop work, are now reconsidering their attitude as the result of threats by the strikers that they will do them bodily injury if they do not quit. It is estimated that 25,000 men are already out and these have between 20,000 and 30,000 others on the point of quitting.

The Moscow lawyers are following the example of the legal fraternity in St. Petersburg, and have declined to practice till the workmen's political demands are granted.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—The police are actively searching out the leaders of the present ferment. Three well known Russian authors and a prominent editor have been arrested, and the prisons are filled with agitators, revolutionists and student orators. The consensus of opinion is that the immediate future actions of the agitators depends on what occurs in Moscow and other large cities of Russia, where the workmen are beginning to strike. Over 100,000 men are out in the old capital of the empire. A telephone message from Moscow reported that there had been no disorder there as yet.

St. Petersburg is now in a state of siege. General Trepoft, until recently chief of police of Moscow, has been appointed governor general of St. Petersburg.

terrible, and has taken up quarters in the winter palace. General Trepoft is a man of energy, but his measures are being opposed at the moment by the student demonstrations. The other last night had much to do with the student demonstrations. Only a few students were killed.

There is a Russian capital in the city of St. Petersburg. The city is a beautiful one, and is the capital of the Russian Empire.

CHINA

Answers Secretary Hay's Note

And Denies Any Breach of Neutrality

CHARGES AGAINST RUSSIA

Of Serious Breaches Are Also Contained in Diplomatic Documents Received.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Secretary of State Hay has received China's answer to the American government's communication calling attention to the Russian charges that the Chinese were violating neutrality. Regarding the charge that the Chinese bandits were enlisted in the Japanese army, the Chinese government calls attention to the fact that they were enlisted by the Russians as frontier guards and fought against the Japanese army. If it is true, as alleged, that they are enlisted in the Japanese army, that is a matter for the belligerents. In the opinion of the Chinese government, the subjects of a neutral power have the right as private citizens to enlist in a foreign army. Whenever these bandits entered the Chinese neutral zone every effort was made for their arrest and punishment, and in most cases they have been arrested.

Regarding the Ryssheint incident, it is said that the seizure was as unexpected by the Chinese as by the Russians. The Chinese government did everything it could against such seizure. The Chinese government later requested Japan to return the vessel, and, while the incident is not yet closed, China considers that her government has done all possible in the matter.

The Maotao islands are said to have been used by the Japanese as a base for their navy. The Chinese government for the past year has stationed the swift cruiser Haiki to watch this island, and the local prefect summoned there the gunboat Haijia to patrol those waters. No sign of any landing of Japanese has been reported to the government. Regarding the articles of contraband alleged to have been sent to Dalny, the answer says no ships have left Chefoo with the knowledge of the Chinese government for Dalny, and no clearance papers for that port have been issued by the Chinese custom officials. If ships have run the blockade that is the belligerents' lookout.

The Chinese government considers that Russia has violated neutrality in a number of instances. Bridges have been built by the Russians west of the Liao river, and Russian troops have encamped on the west side of the river, which is supposed to mark the boundary line of the neutral zone. In many places in the neutral zone the Russians have forced the sale of provisions. The Chinese have made many arrests of Russians smuggling ammunition, arms and other contraband articles.

Prominent Dowlette Dead.

MINERS

ARE INCLINED TO DO AWAY WITH WALKING DELEGATES.

They quit More Last Year Than Ever Before and Membership did Not Increase.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.—One of the questions that the miners are now discussing is whether they should do away with walking delegates. It is reported that in the last year more delegates were elected than in any previous year, and that the miners are inclined to do away with them.

LIFE PRESERVERS

"Broke Like Soda Crackers" When Doomed Passengers on General Slocum Tried to Use Them.

New York, Jan. 25.—That the life preservers on the General Slocum were rotten and unfit and that some of the victims of the disaster were drowned with life preservers strapped properly around them was the trend of the testimony of witnesses examined Tuesday at the trial of Henry Landberg and John W. Fleming, former assistant inspectors, in the criminal branch of the United States Circuit court. The courtroom was filled with relatives and friends of the 1,000 persons who lost their lives by the burning of the steamboat, and several women who were weeping silently during the testimony seemed on the verge of a hysterical outburst.

STOOD GUARD

OVER THE BODY OF HIS MURDERED BROTHER

And Held at Bay All Night a Posse of Citizens—A Double Murderer.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 25.—After holding at bay all night a posse of Lakewood citizens, George Wagar, probable double murderer, this morning stood guard over the dead body of his brother, one of his victims, and gave warning to the watchers outside with an occasional shot, that he would permit no interference in his insane frenzy.

The shots came now and again from the windows of the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Wagar the murderer's mother. The posse headed by Mayor Rowe and Chief of Police Coffinbury was unable to get near enough to the house to effect an entrance. The one man who had dared the insane fury of the murderer, Patrolman John Klaymyer, was mortally wounded. He is dying at the hospital.

After a quarrel last night in the home Wagar, while intoxicated, shot and killed his brother John. When Klaymyer went to the house to arrest him he was shot down. Then Wagar barricaded himself in the house.

Wagar was successfully captured by the posse of policemen and citizens at 9 o'clock today. Three women who were practically held prisoners in the house were safely released.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 25.—The main building which includes the dormitory of the Roger Williams university for negroes, was destroyed by fire. No casualties resulted, but much personal property was destroyed, and the total loss will not be less than $50,000. Facilities for fighting the fire were limited, as the buildings are situated beyond the city limit. The institution is under the patronage of the Home Missionary society of New York.

COLD WAVE CAME

And Entire Country Was Affected by Low Temperature.

COLDEST IN YEARS AT MANY POINTS.

At Chicago the Cold Was Intensified by a 40 Mile an Hour Gale—Steamers Were Blown Ashore And Several Lives Lost.

Newark was affected by the general cold wave that struck seemingly the entire country simultaneously. All day Tuesday the snow fall was heavy and toward evening the mercury began to make a rapid descent, going from about 20 degrees above to zero, and at some points in Newark several degrees below. The story of the cold and storm at other points is told in the following dispatches:

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 25.—(Bulletin)—Three vessels are reported ashore on the coast. Loss of life is said to have occurred.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 25.—With the mercury at 11 below, the coldest weather of the season was registered here this morning. Zero weather prevails throughout Western Missouri.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 25.—Dispatches from southern Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky report the coldest weather of the winter today with considerable snow.

STEERAGE PASSENGERS DIE.

New York, Jan. 25.—The Red Star line steamer Vaterland, which arrived at her pier in the North river last night from Antwerp, was a death ship on this voyage. Ten of her steerage passengers died from pneumonia on the trip and the bodies of eight of them were committed to the deep. The bodies of the other two who died just before the vessel arrived here were brought to port. The dead were males, their ages ranging from 15 to 40 years.

Captain Eloff says that while the weather was extremely rough for the first days out from Antwerp it was no worse than the usual run of Atlantic weather in mid-winter. He attributes the many deaths to the fact that the immigrants had come on board poorly fed, poorly clad, still further debilitated by a long railroad ride—all coming from a distant province in Hungary—and therefore in no condition to withstand the rigors of an Atlantic voyage. This is borne out by the testimony of Dr. Sydney K. Simon of New Orleans, and Dr. William Ackermann of Milwaukee, who were among the saloon passengers.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 25.—A severe storm swept the Virginia, Maryland and Carolina coast last night and today.

GUILTY

WAS THE VERDICT IN TUCKER MURDER CASE

When It Was Announced Youthful Prisoner Collapsed and Had to Be Led to Jail.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 25.—Murder in the first degree was the verdict of the jury in the case of Charles L. Tucker of Amherst, charged with the murder of Miss Mabel Page, 41, who was stabbed to death at her home on March 21. Tucker collapsed utterly when the foreman read the verdict. He was led to the jail in an exhausted condition, and when once more looked in his cell revived somewhat under stimulants administered by a physician. Before the case was given to the jury Tucker availed himself of the opportunity to address the jurors, and declared his innocence, saying he was at home when Miss Page met her death. He said he foolishly broke up the knife, which figured so prominently in the case, because officers hounded him. He said he knew nothing of the crime until reporters came to talk to him about it.

Paris, Jan. 25.—Early this morning the first game of the great chess match between Frank P. Marshall of Brooklyn, N. Y., the American champion, and D. Jarowski of this city, the Polish champion, was won by Marshall after 28 moves. It appears that Marshall employed his adversary in a brilliant game. Jarowski put up a brilliant fight, but it was of no avail. The second game in the series will be played tomorrow when Jarowski will play the white pieces.

It is claimed that these musicians are able to play practically every instrument known to the musical world, and from what has been said of them where they have already appeared, this claim seems to be well-founded. Besides the Exposition Four the production introduces that humorous comedian, talented people, together with a large talented people, together with a large

The famous young stars, "The Lyman Twin Brothers," who have jumped with wonderful strides to the front rank as comedians, and who will have the pleasure of seeing here soon in their new comedy, "At the Races," which is said to be one of the finest and most complete musical comedy productions of the day, are comedians in a class by themselves, and entertainers who deal out comedy lines and situations in a way seldom seen.

Their new vehicle, "At the Races" is the most elaborate production in which they have yet appeared. Carrying a large company, a dainty chorus of pretty girls, a host of funny comedians, singers and dancers, together with a beautiful array of scenic and electrical effects complete. RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism, one of the most painful of all diseases, is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood and attacks the joints of the ankles, knees, hips, elbows wrists and shoulders—even the fingers, toes and soles of the feet. It often attacks the neck, the back and most dangerous of all, the heart. The disease is accompanied by the most excruciating bone pains and soon causes the joints to become stiff and practically useless.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) reaches at once the internal source of the malady and counteracts the acid condition of the blood. It dissolves and dissipates the rheumatic poison, relieves the pain, lubricates the joints and builds up the whole system. The fearful ravages of the disease are remedied and the sufferer gradually regains the strength and vigor of perfect health. It cures the most obstinate, long-standing cases where doctors, blood purifying treatments and all other remedies have failed.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle, and is guaranteed to cure.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"Wives of Smart Men"

Should remind them, they can make their lives secure, and departing leave behind them, something sold, something sure! A joke is a joke, but leaving a widow poor and young children destitute as the result of having "tried to carry your own life insurance, or having tried to invest your money to better advantage," is no joke at all. You cannot carry your own life insurance any more than you can carry your own mail and over 85 per cent of all new business ventures are failures. Avoid this calamity by at once taking a policy in the Equitable Life of New York, which is the strongest in the world. We will return all the money you pay us in 10, 15 or 20 years, with interest besides.

Charges Against a Judge.

Washington Jan. 25.—In the mail of nearly every member of the house of representatives was a letter signed by the firm name of Watt & Doham, attorneys-at-law, Philadelphia, asking forth 12 reasons why constitutional action should be taken against Judge E. Henry Lacombe of the circuit court for the southern district of New York. Chairman Jenkins of the judiciary committee intends to lay the matter before the committee. The main allegation is that Judge Lacombe has been instrumental in preventing a final decree being handed down in certain litigation.

President's Irish Ancestors.

New York, Jan. 25.—The annual dinner of the American Irish Historical society was held at the Hotel Manhattan. President Roosevelt, a member of the society, had been expected to attend, but sent his regrets in a letter, adding that he expects to be able to attend a dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, to be held at Delmonico's on March 17. A second letter from the president, read by a member of the society, alluded to Mr. Roosevelt's Irish ancestors, who came to Pennsylvania early in the seventeenth century.

Killed by Civil War Shell.

Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 25.—Charles Ware, a farmer of Todd county, Ky., was killed here by the explosion of a shell, a relic of the civil war. Mr. Ware was in the office of a tobacco warehouse alone at the time and it is supposed he threw the shell into the fire, thinking it a stick of wood. It weighed about eight pounds and had been kept as a curiosity, no one thinking it was loaded.

Coldest of the Winter.

Kansas City Jan. 25.—The coldest weather of the winter is prevailing throughout Kansas and western Missouri. A bitter north wind is blowing. The body of an unknown man was found in a strawstack at Wichita, probably having been frozen to death.

Cattle Breeder Fails.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 25.—Campbell Russell, one of the best known breeders of Hereford cattle in the southwest, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. Liabilities $113,100, assets $90,000.

LUNGACHE

pains in chest, bronchitis, and similar signs of a cold on the lungs, can be quickly relieved and cured by

HAMLIN'S WIZARD OIL

No time should be lost because lung trouble may easily develop into pneumonia or consumption. Hamlin's Wizard Oil, applied to the chest, relieves the pain and inflammation, loosens up the cough and soon cures the disease.

"My little girl," writes Rich W. Thornton, of Ouray, Colo., "suffered more or less with a cold on the lungs since her birth, and finally the trouble became serious. No remedies gave relief, until we tried Hamlin's Wizard Oil. One bottle of which permanently cured her." Price 50c and $1.00.

A monument has been erected in Grosse Pointe, Upper Silesia by Count Tschirchky in the form of an immense block of granite, which bears the following inscription: "His Majesty the Emperor and King, William II, shot on this spot, on December 2, 1900, his fifty-third birthday, a which cock pheasant."

been resumed upon a limited scale. The employees in a few of the smaller factories went back to work, and the crowds of strikers in the streets were diminished. The troops in evidence were not so numerous as on Monday, and a more confident feeling exists in official circles that the energetic measures which have been inaugurated will insure the safety and quiet of the city. Underneath the surface, however, the ferment continues, and the public nervousness and apprehension as to future developments is still unallayed. Secret meetings of different classes in opposition to the existing order of things have been held in various places, but the divergent elements which were suddenly brought together by the tragic events of last Sunday are advancing on divergent plans, and no common ground of action has yet been found.

According to the official report the exact number of persons killed in Sunday's rioting was 90; wounded, 323.

SERIOUS

Is the Situation at Moscow and Other Industrial Points.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—The situation that now confronts the military authorities at Moscow city is much more serious than that in St. Petersburg. Out of over 1,000,000 inhabitants of Moscow, over two-thirds are workmen, including an exceedingly rough and turbulent element. At Kovno and Vilna, where strikes also have been begun, the workmen are following the St. Petersburg plan of marching about the city and inducing or forcing other workmen to leave their employment.

Inflammatory circulars have appeared in the streets. They are signed by the "Russian Social Democratic Labor Party." One read: "You saw the death and heard the groans of the wounded men, women and children. Who directed the soldiers to aim their rifles and fire bullets at the breasts of the laborers? It was the emperor, the grand dukes, the ministers, the generals, the nobles of the court. They are the murderers. Slay them. To arms, comrades. Seize the arsenals and the arms at the depots and at the gunsmiths. Lay low the prison walls. Liberate the defenders of freedom. Demolish the police and gendarmie stations and the government and state buildings. We must throw down the emperor and the government, and must have our own government. Long live the revolution. Long live the constituent assembly of the representatives of the people."

It is not known definitely whether Father Gapon, the leader of the workmen, is in Moscow or St. Petersburg. A proclamation said to emanate from him has been distributed, indicating that he has gone over body and soul to the Social Democrats.

All Depends on Moscow.

London, Jan. 25.—The Society of the Friends of Free Russia has decided to raise a fund for the St. Petersburg sufferers. An appeal will be made through the newspapers. The same society is arranging for a mass meeting in Queen's hall on Feb. 2. It is firmly believed and confidently stated by many Russians in London that the army will quickly become disaffected. These Russians say that much depends on Moscow, which is the true center of the revolutionary spirit, and assert that a declaration of independence will be issued at Moscow.

Waving the Red Flag.

Helsingfors, Finland, Jan. 25.—Thousands of workmen joined in a demonstration here. Assembling on the huge steps of the Nicolai cathedral they paraded the streets, waving red flags. The windows of public houses, hotels, breweries and a number of newspaper offices were broken. The police interfered rather late, arresting 50 of the workmen.

Situation in Poland.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—Rioting is reported to have occurred in Russian Poland. At Radom the soldiers and police are said to have exchanged volleys. Three officers are reported killed and a number wounded. Radom is a manufacturing town of 30,000, and about 60 miles from Warsaw.

Student Sympathizers.

Paris, Jan. 25.—Students of the Latin quarter, including a number of Russians, held a meeting in sympathy with the St. Petersburg strikers and attempted to make a demonstration. The police broke up the meeting. No serious incident occurred.

Want Machine Guns.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The Russian government has ordered the Ludwig Lowe arms factory to supply as soon as possible 500 machine guns.

Railway Promoter Arrested.

Portland, Ind., Jan. 25.—Smith H. Bracey of Chicago, president of the Cincinnati, Bluffton and Chicago Railroad company, now in the hands of a receiver, was arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of County Surveyor J. J. Griffith, who charges Bracey with having obtained money under false pretenses. Griffith alleges that he has loaned to Bracey various sums, from $700 to $5,000, which were to have been used in the construction of the railroad. No sooner was the road completed, according to the complainant, than the road was thrown into the hands of a receiver. Bracey, who is president of the Bracey-Howard Construction company of Chicago, subsequently filed a mechanic's lien against the railroad for $600,000.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Steamer Was Delayed Which Is to Bring Richard Croaker to Son's Funeral.

London, Jan. 25.—The North German
Lloyd liner, Kaiser Wilhelm
Der Grosse, on which Richard Croaker has engaged passage for New York, was delayed at Bremen by a fog. Mr.
Croaker crossed in deep mourning for his son Frank, who was killed while autobus at Ormond Beach, Fla., left London this morning to catch the steamer. The former Tammany leader was not interviewed by newspapermen as they respected his evident grief. He will wait at Southampton till the steamer arrives.

Baron Speck Von Sternberg, the German ambassador at Washington, is a passenger on the steamer.

Croaker's Body in New York.
New York, Jan. 25.—The body of Frank Croaker, son of Richard Croaker, reached this city today from Ormond Beach, where he died as the result of an automobile accident on Saturday last. On the train accompanying the body was the dead boy's mother and other members of the family.

A committee appointed by the Democratic club met the body at the 23d street ferry, and escorted it to the family residence, No. 5 West 74th street. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

Cave of Counterfeiters.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 25.—Cliff Torrence, deputy United States marshal, and William Curry, a special city officer, discovered a counterfeiters' cave near the new Country Club house, a mile north of the city limits. The cave was formed by digging into the bank of the river. The opening was concealed with a screen of brush. Inside was a complete outfit for the manufacture of spurious coins of various denominations, from dimes to dollars. A mass of white metal, a furnace, molds, dies and a lot of bogus coins were discovered and placed in the office of the United States commissioner.

BODILY GRACE.

Any Woman May Become Lined and Easy of Movement.

In America we have not yet learned to give proper attention to our bodily movements. We are apt to think that if we are clumsy in the face nothing more is needed. There is no greater mistake. The woman who carries herself in a graceful, noble, queenly way will attract admiring notice wherever she passes, while nobody will look at a merely pretty girl who slouches awkwardly along beside her.

In France the streets and parks abound in groups of rare and classically graceful groups of statuary. The people, even the poorest working women, have these exquisite models of grace and poise before their eyes always. In course of time they unconsciously imitate the grace of the marbles.
Moreover, the tiny French maidens is trained from the time she begins to walk to move her feet and hands gracefully.

Abolishing Round Shoulders.

A common disfigurement is round shoulders, with the accompanying hollow chest. A woman simply lets the muscles of her chest slide down in front upon her stomach, making no persistent effort to sit and stand braced up as a lady should. The results are three—round shoulders, a hollow chest and a large stomach. The tendency to unsightly and ruinous slumping must be taken heretically in hand. To begin, let the round shouldered girl sleep without pillows. If she has acquired the very bad habit of sleeping half in a sitting posture, let her take the props away, one at a time, gradually lowering the head till she can lie upon the bed comfortably with her whole body stretched flat, or, if she must have a pillow, let it be a hair one, thin and flat. Feather pillows are heating and bad to bury the face and hair in.

An admirable exercise for filling out the chest and flattening the back is this: Stand erect, weight poised upon the front of the foot. Extend your arms in front of you, as in the picture, palms together. Next, rise upon your toes, take a deep, slow, full breath. Exhale this breath slowly, and as you do so bring your arms up over the head and down behind your back. The dotted circles will show how this is done. Let your heels descend till they again bear your weight. Repeat this a number of times, always with the deep breathing and rising upon the toes. It will lift the body and limber marvelously the stiff, ungainly muscles of the shoulders and back of the neck.

Calisthenic Dancing.

Education in dancing is greatly neglected in America. There ought to be in girls' schools a set of dancing exercises planned carefully with the view to cultivating lightness and limberness.
Skirt dances, high kicking, bending the body from the waist, can be easily performed to the accompaniment of music, which lightens the spirits and makes amusement out of work.
Even ordinary dancing lessons may be depended on to make girls graceful of step and movement.

The most graceful and beautiful women the world has ever seen were those of ancient Greece. Every woman there was trained in childhood to take part in athletic games suited to her sex, also to dance in rhythmic motion.
Clumsy and ungainly movement on the part of a woman partook of the nature of sin.

A woman can make no greater mistake either than to conclude she is too old to dance or to learn gymnastic exercises. The stiffer a woman's joints and muscles are the more need she has of limbering exercises. Let her get a move on.

Proper Sitting Posture.

When some people sit down in a chair they plunk into it as though they were a piece of dressed beef, with not a bit more life or lightness about them than that. The right way is to let yourself down easily, lightly and gradually into the seat. Do not lean upon your arms when you sit down or rise. Do not sit upon your backbone either. Sit squarely upon the great muscles at the back of the hips, with the thigh bones at right angles to the spine. This is the only graceful and hygienic way to sit. Maintain this attitude, with the chest up and spine straight, and you will present always a graceful picture. Lolling upon the backbone makes the back ache and causes spinal trouble.

Jumped the Track.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 25.—Southern Pacific passenger train No. 1, known as the "Overland Limited," jumped the track at Kodak, four miles east of Love Lock, Nev., and eight of the ten cars composing the train left the rails.
No one was seriously injured, although a number were injured badly. The train was making good speed when the accident occurred. The cause of the derailment, according to the company, is a defective switch on the track.

The Uneasy Head That Wears a Crown.

(Columbus Citizen.)
It is difficult to withhold sympathy for the unhappy Czar of Russia. A mere glance at the popular picture of him taken with the Czarina and their three daughters and infant son is enough to convince the average man that Providence never selected him to rule an oppressed people or send navies and armies against the warlike nations of the world. The poor Czar believes in the divine right of kings. He was taught to believe it and never knew any other teaching. More than that, he is in his own opinion, as were each of his royal predecessors, the direct representative of God on earth and the head of the only true church. Conceive a man thoroughly imbued with these ideas, reared in the atmosphere of absolutism and feeling that his mission is divine, and we may gain some conception of the allowances which should be made for the Czar of all the Russias and his attitude toward the common herd.

But aside from these strictly kingly and mental environments, the real gifts which Providence gave the Czar, as they are given in greater or less degrees to every man, are the virtues which unfit him for the tremendous task autocracy has placed in his hands. He has the self-conviction of the warlord, but none of his other mental attributes. He is by nature domestic, trustful—it such a thing may be in Russia—and in all ordinary relations in life a man whom other men would associate with the idea of peace. The doctrine of the divine right of kings never received a shock more severe than in the character of Russia's present ruler, and there are indications that the Russian people are beginning to find this out, after the lapse of centuries.

TOBOSO.
Mr. John Humphrey, the oldest and one of the most highly respected citizens of Rural Route No. 1, is seriously ill at his home a few miles south of here with some disease affecting his eyes. The attending physician, Dr. Wortman, found it necessary to remove one eye. Owing to his advanced age recovery is very slow, but it is hoped he will soon be able to be around again.

Mrs. James Gard is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. Arthur Evers of Newark, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Francis, Saturday and Sunday.

After a pleasant visit with friends in Champaign, Illinois, Miss Ura Hursey has returned to her home near Gratiot.

Mrs. P. M. Brill, Clarence Cheek and Raymond Varner are on the sick list.

Mr. John Iden has moved his saw mill to the Varner farm, south of here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brill spent a few days with their son, Othel Brill, and family of Newark.

Miss Bernice Varner of Newark, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents. She was accompanied by her friend Miss Martha Pickrel.

Mr. Jacob Lescalleet has bought one of Mr. Crawford's farms. We are glad that Mr. Lescalleet has settled in our community, as he is a very desirable neighbor.

Ross Romine is suffering with a gathering on his thumb.

Miss Elizabeth Crawford of near Cottage Hill, spent last week with her nephew, Judson Slick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Walrath are visiting friends in Hanover.

It is estimated that to collect one pound of honey from clover 62,000,000 heads of clover must be deprived of nectar, and 2,750,000 visits from the bees must be made.

Salt Rheum

You may call it eczema, tetter or milk crust. But no matter what you call it, this skin disease which comes in patches that burn, itch, discharge a watery matter, dry and crack, comes its existence to the presence of humors in the system.

It will continue to exist, annoy, and perhaps agonize, as long as these humors remain. It is always radically and permanently cured by which expels all humors and is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions.

THE MEDICAL SENSATION OF THE AGE—THE DISCOVERY OF PE-RU-NA

BY DR. S. B. HARTMAN.

Other Remedies Failed—Pe-ru-na Cured.
Mrs. Chas. Steinecke, Stoughton, Wis., writes:
"My experience with Peruna has been most pleasing. By carelessly leaving a heated ball room I got thoroughly chilled and caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs. I wore a protector, took many remedies for cold without success. With my other troubles I had catarrh of the head."
"Peruna was recommended to me and I bought a bottle and soon began to improve. I kept on taking it and it cured me from all my troubles. I am pleased to testify to its merits."

The World's Greatest Medicine Factory.
The rapid growth of the Peruna Medicine Company is as phenomenal in the business world as the universal popularity of their famous remedy, Peruna. The plant covers a number of acres, and employs several hundred people. No other medicine firm in the world reaches anything like the volume of business done by Dr. Hartman's firm. Although Peruna is a proprietary medicine, the details of its compounding are no secret and nothing gives Dr. Hartman greater pleasure than to show the many friends of Peruna all the essential processes by which Peruna is made.

A Doctor's Prescription.
For years Dr. Hartman used Peruna in his private practice as a regular prescription. He had no thought of manufacturing it or advertising it as a proprietary medicine until there was a demand made upon him by his many friends, who clamored for the original prescription.

Forty Thousand Patients.
Dr. Hartman estimates that he must have prescribed Peruna for over forty thousand patients before it was advertised as a proprietary medicine.

Cured in Four Weeks of Severe Cold on Lungs.
Miss Josie Schaezel, R. R. No. 1, Appleton, Wis., writes:
"I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs in very short order and it was not long until it developed into a serious case of catarrh. Every morning I would raise a lot of phlegm, which was very disagreeable. My digestion was poor and my lungs sore."
"After a few doses of Peruna, I began to mend, and felt that if I kept on taking it, it would not be long until I would be well. I was right, for in four weeks I was well again."
"I think Peruna is a grand medicine, and wish to add my testimony to the many others you have."—Josie Schaezel.

Pe-ru-na Removes the Cause of Catarrh.
Peruna has no bad effects upon the system and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years.

Given Up By Doctors—Cured By Pe-ru-na.
Miss Margaret Fahey, 49 Adams street, Troy, N. Y., writes:
"We have used Peruna in our family for years and I am very pleased to say that it cured me of catarrh of the lungs when the doctors gave up all hope of my recovery."
"I used Peruna for six months and at the end of that time my cough had disappeared, my appetite was much better and I had gained ten pounds and looked the picture of health."
"I am in perfect health, now, and feel that Peruna not only cures catarrh, but builds up the system, and is therefore a grand medicine."—Margaret Fahey.

Pe-ru-na's Popularity.
Peruna is not like so many other remedies that pass away as soon as the first few bottles are used. The longer Peruna is used in any community, the more popular it becomes.

Pe-ru-na Actually Cures.
The reason why Peruna has become a standard catarrh remedy the world over is simply because it cures catarrh.

This explains why Peruna has become so popular. It cures catarrh. This is an amply sufficient reason why it should become popular. Catarrh is almost universal. Catarrh is difficult to cure. The doctors do not care to treat cases of catarrh at all. It therefore follows that when a remedy is devised that can be used in the home at a moderate cost, such a remedy should inevitably become popular.

WHAT WHISKEY COSTS THE DRUNKARD

Cure the Drink Habit With Orlene and Save Money.

Whiskey drinking does not pay. Take the lowest possible view, without counting the loss of friends, the loss of business, the loss of manhood that comes to the drunkard; consider simply the actual money paid out and see what it costs in dollars and cents. Good authority states that nearly one-third of the wages of the laboring man goes over the bar. How much are you contributing? Figure up for one month how much you take from your wives and children and pay out in exchange for drink. The total will astonish you, and you will swear off.

Will-power alone will not cure the habit. Use Orlene, the only guaranteed cure for the habit. It can be used without publicity or loss of time. It strengthens the nerves, gives a good appetite and refreshing sleep. The cost is small, $1 per box. Orlene is sold and recommended by F. D. Hall, 16 North Side Square, Newark, O.

SUMMIT STATION.

The protracted meeting at the M. E. church closed on Sunday afternoon with sacramental services. Thirteen persons connected themselves with the church. Rev. S. S. Brill is deserving of much credit for the good he has accomplished.

F. A. Berthick, State Grange speaker, will address the farmers and all concerned in the Farmers of Hudson County, on Monday evening, Feb. 6, at which time an organization will probably be effected. A good turnout is desired.

BEAN SOCIAL

GIVEN AT MEMORIAL HALL ON TUESDAY NIGHT

A Delightful Time Was Enjoyed By All Who Attended the Successful Function.

"Beans for breakfast, Beans for dinner, Beans for supper, Beans, beans, beans."

At Memorial hall Tuesday evening, Major David Thomas, the new commander of Lemert Post No. 71 of the Grand Army of the Republic, tendered a "bean social" to his comrades, and also invited the ex-soldiers of all wars and their ladies. In order that this might be a success in a culinary manner it was necessary for the commander to reduce to ranks one of his staff officers for the occasion, Surgeon William Bestwick, the only authority on the soldiers' best friend—"the old army bean." It was said that Comrade Bestwick was seen to put the beans to soak early Sunday morning, as it is a well known fact that the more they are "watered" the more valuable the stock, this also applies to stocks of another description.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Commander Thomas called the assembly to order and Chaplain Nash invoked the divine Presence, a patriotic air was sung and the venerable Colonel Charles H. Kibler responded to the toast of the hour, "The Bean." The Colonel, in his usual witty manner, then gave the many uses of the bean, even tracing him back through ancient history, but unfortunately for his interested hearers the door of the banquet hall was opened by a gust of wind and the aroma of the subject was wafted in. Then the Colonel asked that they might at once adjourn to the feast, which was done. At the several tables in the roomy banquet hall all were soon seated discussing a splendid menu as prepared by ex-Surgeon Bestwick.

After the banquet order was again called when the evening was spent in listening to short addresses, singing patriotic airs and musical selections, and in a general good old-time soldiers love feast. No doubt the extreme cold caused many comrades to be absent, but the absent ones missed one of the most pleasant gatherings ever held by Lemert Post. The Major had a double purpose in this social gathering; to entertain all soldiers, and to show appreciation of his election as commander, but his greatest desire was that it might be the means of increasing the attendance and interest in the meetings of the Post. At a late hour, upon motion of Colonel Kibler, a vote of thanks was tendered to Major Thomas for his delightful entertainment, and all retired with warm hearts for Lemert Post.

POLICE COURT.

Chief of Police James Sheridan was in Columbus on Tuesday, and went to the morgue to view the remains of the man that was killed in that city on the Pan Handle road. It was reported that the man was Thomas Jones, a machinist of this city, but on investigating the case it was found that the man was not from Newark.

THIEVES COMBINE

And While Widow Investigates One at Barn—Another Robs Home of Jewels.

Delaware, O., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Mary Morey of Magnetic Springs is loser by about $150 worth of jewelry by a "slick" thief.

During the night the hired man heard a horse thief in the barn and called forth with a gun to stop him. He saw the thief all right, and in the gray of the morning let fly several charges of buckshot. The thief, who possibly had stopped one or more pellets, got away, in the gloaming, but the firing awakened the widow, who "hotfooted" it to the barn to see what was the matter. The "hoss" thief had been there all right, but had "down the 000's," carrying with him a reminder of the lead trust.

Mrs. Morey shivered and broke for the house, only to find in the meantime that a confederate, who waited along the fence while the hired man had a volley fired at the horse thief, had slipped into the house and had escaped with $150 worth of jewelry. It was a case of the Japno-Russian war over again.

INVESTED

In Western Marble Company and Lost Heavily, Probable Cause of Houseman's Suicide.

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—It was stated Tuesday by certain persons familiar with the affairs of the East Side Savings bank that had invested considerable money in the South Dakota Marble company, of which Charles M. Henley is the local agent, and that as a result of this investment he lost considerable money.

For some time Mr. Houseman had been worried about this investment. It is stated he made frequent calls on the agent of the East Side Marble company, and one day he had bought a large quantity of marble. Thomas L. Kinsley, who spent part of Sunday afternoon with Mr. Henley, states that while they were at the bank Mr. Houseman did not say a word about his troubles, but in the afternoon he was found dead in his bed.

AS A MAN

WOMAN BARBER FROM JOHNS-TOWN, O., PASSED.

Worked in Baltimore, Md., Shop and Proved a Capable Tonsorial Artist—Fled When Exposed.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 25.—The startling discovery was made Tuesday that a supposed male barber in the employ of Frederick Reibel, 308 North Eutaw street, was a woman, who came to this city from Johnstown, Ohio. Reibel advertised for a barber, and a stranger, about 22 years old, giving the name of William Leonard, was put to work.

The supposed man proved to be an able tonsorial artist, and Reibel's best customers were turned over to Leonard. The stranger was well built, with brown eyes and closely clipped brown hair. While "his" actions at times were effeminate, "he" had a deep voice, and could smoke cigarettes and drink whisky like a veteran.

Leonard seemed to enjoy the company of Howard Chew, a colored boot-black employed in the barber shop, and it was due to the latter that the sex of the woman was discovered. Reibel was appraised of this fact by Leonard had effected an entrance to the barber shop and had removed his razors and scissors and disappeared as mysteriously as "he" came.

During the time Leonard was employed in the shop "he" was rather uncommunicative, and was quite uncivil to some of the customers. "He" did tell Reibel, however, that "he" came from Johnstown, Ohio, had traveled over 3,000 miles during the past year by boat "his" way around the country on freight trains, and that "he" had worked as a barber in a number of places.

Johnstown, O., Jan. 25.—Marshal Dresbach of this village, says no young woman there is missing, but recently a tall stranger employed as a barber there, left Johnstown suddenly.

HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

Around Which Cluster Some Sacred Sentiments, Was Being Torn Down, But E. A. Deeds Suggests a Plan to Save Building--Demolition Has Stopped.

The recent sale of the old Granville College building, known as the old "Gym" building, the forerunner of the present Denison university, and the commencement of its acquisition by the purchaser, the material of the sacred old historic structure to be incorporated into a barn stable, has caused a protest of indignation and sorrow throughout the entire alumni body of the university. The following letter from Mr. Edward A. Deeds, who is assistant general manager of the National Cash Register company at Dayton, and an alumnus of the class of '97, of Denison University, gives a very practical plan by which the historic old building may be preserved and converted to useful uses than those to which its destruction is being put.

Dayton, O., Jan. 19, 1905. Editor Denisonian, Granville, Ohio. Gentlemen.—The other day I spent two or three hours in Granville, and as is my habit when going back to the old college town, took a walk over the campus. It was a delight to me to see the number of improvements which had been made. I saw the President's new house for the first time and the new gymnasium and heating plant, something of which every Denisonian should be proud.

In going past the old dormitories, however, I saw something which rather startled me. To every man who has enjoyed college life at Denison the old gymnasium brings pleasant memories. About this old building are clustered the most sacred sentiments of the institution. Built in the 30's on the site of the original college, it turned out from its walls some of the sturdiest of men. There are few recent graduates of Denison who have not at some time during their college life made a pilgrimage to the old college site and its historical associations of that spot were ever a source of inspiration. Many are the tales of privation and sacrifices which the older members of that institution can tell. Later the building was moved to its present site, and we of more recent years recall it as the old gym. It meant more to us than merely a gymnasium. Imperfect as it was we could not but have respect for the old building, not so much for what it was as for what it had been and for the history connected with it.

I was startled in walking past the dormitories to see this old landmark being torn down. I went to our friend Ed Tipton and asked him how much he had paid for it and he replied $20. When I asked him how much work he had put on it he said $50 worth. When I asked him how much he would take for his bargain, he said $100. I made a payment on account and took an option for thirty days.

The old frame work built of heavy logs and with slight repairs, he made as solid as the day it was built. It seems to me a shame that this frame work and foundation, which could not be reproduced for $200, should be torn down and sold to be used as a barn.

After I had gotten on the train, I realized that I had bought something, and the next question was, what could I do with it? The thought came to me that here was a great opportunity to secure for Denison something which has long been needed. I had a plan. I had a manual training box car and a carload of frames could be bought. This thought came to me naturally because my school has been of a great help to me. I had a plan. I had a manual training box car and a carload of frames could be bought. This thought came to me naturally because my school has been of a great help to me.

Granville and had him make plans for converting this old building into a manual training school. It is surprising to see how well it can be done. It seems as if the old building is adapted to this particular kind of work. In talking with President Hunt, Professor Gilpatrick and others, I find that they would be glad to have such a building equipped if some provision could be made for instruction. This is a question, however, which I feel could be left to take care of itself. During my college days at Denison, I taught a manual training class for two or three terms, and I believe there will be no difficulty in getting young men of ability to go there and teach the different classes, if they are given scholarships. Doubtless a more practical solution of this problem could be found after the building and equipment are secured. For $5,000 a building could be erected which would provide Denison with as perfect a manual training department as is possessed by any institution in the State.

Here is an opportunity to inaugurate in Denison a most practical course of instruction, and preserve for the college a building permeated with the best sentiments of the institution. As the matter stands today, an option of thirty days is held on the building. Plans are being completed by an architect, showing how the building can be utilized. A circular is being printed and letters will be written within the next ten days to a number of old alumni, asking them for contributions. As yet I have had no opportunity to confer with any of the alumni on this matter, and what has so far been done is on my own responsibility. I hope soon to get time to talk this matter over with some of the good Denisonians and in the meantime by printing this letter in the columns of your paper I hope to receive opinions through the same medium, so that we can arouse interest in this important matter.

Personally I shall be glad to receive any suggestions that may be made. I am not in a position to make any large contributions, yet I am ready to bear my share of the expense in carrying out his purpose. I believe there are many like myself, who would prefer to contribute to this specific cause rather than to a fund to be used for indefinite purpose.

Whatever is done should be done within thirty days. There are surely a large number of Denison alumni who will feel just as I do on this question. This is a matter which not one person can hope to carry out, but it is one which can well be accomplished by a united effort of students and graduates.

Let us follow the matter up and see if we cannot within thirty days offer a plan which we can submit to the trustees of the university which will enable them to secure something they have so long needed, and at the same time preserve to Granville and Denison a building which is associated with all the early triumphs and accomplishments of the university. Yours for Denison. E. A. DEEDS, D. U. '97.

SUICIDE

OF MILLIGAN PREVENTED BY CHIEF OF POLICE.

Prisoner Calmly Detailed Incidents of Florence Groves' Death—Had Agreed to Die With Her.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 25.—Arthur Henry Milligan, with whom Florence O. Groves agreed to commit suicide at the Hotel Blatz, and who disappeared after she had fulfilled her agreement Monday morning, was arrested at the residence of Robert Barlow at Racine. His capture took place only after he had attempted suicide and had been prevented by Chief Pfister. After his arrest Milligan calmly detailed the story of his life and the incidents of the girl's death. He said that Florence Groves took carbolic acid in his presence at the hotel after she had made three attempts to kill herself. Milligan was not married to Florence Groves. The couple left the Groves residence at Chicago and eloped with the intention of marrying, but lack of time prevented the carrying out of their plans.

"Florence Groves knew that the end would be when she decided to elope with me, and she was eager to die with me," Milligan said. "She was engaged to a schoolteacher of Orlando, Ill., but she loved me better. I told her that the day she married him I would kill myself, or else would take my life on her birthday, Jan. 27. Every day that we were at the hotel we planned to kill ourselves. Finally we set Monday morning as the day. Sunday morning she tried three times to kill herself with poisons I had purchased. She drank oxalic acid, iodine and wood alcohol. In turn, but they only acted as cathartics. She begged and implored me not to go first, as she did not want to see me die. She asked me to pour out the acid, and I filled a wine glass with it. As her last request she asked me to hand it to her, but I refused repeatedly. At last she herself snatched the glass and swallowed the dose. 'Don't leave me until I'm dead,' she implored in a dull whisper. As I watched the terrible convulsions that wracked her form, the tears that sprang from my eyes, the agonizing setting of the eyes and the mortal pain I pressed, in her every movement, my nerve failed me. I did not have the courage to follow her." Milligan was brought back to Milwaukee.

Marcum-Hargis Case.

Winchester, Ky., Jan. 25.—Judge Benton overruled the motions of plaintiffs for a new trial in the $100,000 damage suit of Mrs. Marcum against Hargis, Callahan and French, so far as the verdict exonerating Alex Hargis and B. F. French was concerned, and said had the verdict been otherwise he would have set it aside. He also overruled the motion of defendants for a new trial in behalf of James Hargis and Ed Callahan, against whom a verdict of $8,000 was given. Judge Benton said the question of contempt of court on the part of French in bribing witnesses to leave the state would be thoroughly investigated. An appeal was granted in each case.

Vanderbilt, who last year covered five miles in 3:21 1-3.

Correcting Bad Habits
Not Enough.

NATURE NEEDS ASSISTANCE.

To cure a torpid and inactive liver, more is required than the mere correction of bad habits. You change your diet, reform your manner of living, but unless you assist Nature's efforts won't be a success. When the liver and bowels are acting improperly, something must be done to put them in condition again. There is lack of tone in the liver action as well as in the bowels. You feel depressed and unfitted for work, and are unable to get the best out of your system. Smith's Buchu-Lithia Pills stimulate the circulation and make the liver active and the bowels regular. People Prominent In the Public Eye

REPRESENTATIVE NICHOLAS LONGWORTH of Ohio has often been mentioned as a prospective son-in-law of President Roosevelt. Whether there is any foundation for the rumor time alone will tell. The other day Longworth, who is only thirty-five, dropped in to see the president.

"Ah, good morning," said Mr. Roosevelt. "And how is the baby congressman this morning?" "Fine," flashed back Longworth. "And how is the baby president?" Whereupon honors were held to be easy.

Longworth is a Harvard man, and the president's fondness for men who like himself wear the crimson of the big university at Cambridge is well known. The young Ohio statesman is a lawyer, has wealth, belongs to a great many clubs and is quite a social lion at the capital. He is handsome, well "put up," somewhat bald and polished in manner. He has been intimate with the Roosevelts and has often been seen with Miss Alice, but that popular young lady has many suitors, and Secretary Loeb is kept busy denying rumors of her engagement. Congressman Longworth is fond of athletics and devotes a good deal of time to golf, being amateur golf champion of Hamilton county, O. When he made his maiden speech in the house of representatives it was taken down in shorthand by one of the official stenographers who also plays golf and who prefaced the report in these words: "Representative Longworth teed up his first oratorical ball today and made a pretty drive for 180 yards. He got in trouble in the long grass with his metaphorical iron on the second shot, but came out nicely with a poetical approach and holed down in five with a peroration that gave him bogey."

President Eliot of Harvard, who has given fifty years of his life to educational work in the university, is the subject of many anecdotes which illustrate his almost impulsive generosity. "It is well known," says a writer in the Outlook, "that on one occasion a student, sick with contagious disease and shunned by those about him, was taken into the president's own house. A raw subfreshman from a country village in Connecticut on the evening of his first day in Cambridge found himself in need of a Latin grammar to prepare for the next day's examination. Quite without friends at the university, he told his need to the first man he met and was bidden to the stranger's house. There a long search unearthed a Latin grammar, but it proved to be of too old an edition to serve the present need. By this time the stranger's perplexity and anxiety to get the book exceeded the student's own, and after some thought he sent the young man off with a note to a friend in a neighboring street who might be likely to have the right edition. It was weeks before the student learned that the chance stranger who had given an hour of his time and an even more precious measure of his sympathy to a lonely and troubled student was the president of the university.

"In a university that numbers over 4,000 the opportunity for personal touch between student and president is small, but there are scores of stories of the enlistment of the president's personal interest in some student's behalf. There was a young man who desired to study botany, but had failed to satisfy some technical preliminary requirement. The committee which stood between the student and his wish has a vivid recollection of the warmth of manner and the emphatic gesture of the president as he declared, 'If that young man wants to study botany, he shall study it.'"

The other day Jesse Overstreet of Indiana, chairman of the house committee on postoffices and post roads, overheard some one talking about persistence. "Reminds me of what my teacher used to tell me," he said. "She was constantly reminding me of the virtue of persistence. 'You can do anything,' she used to say, 'by hanging on.'"

"I know one thing," I told her one day, "that you can't do by being persistent." "What is it?" she asked. "'Carry water in a sieve,' I replied triumphantly. "Oh, yes, you can," she said, "if you wait long enough." "How long would you have to wait?" I asked incredulously. "'Until it froze,' she replied, and I realized she had me."

Ex-Mayor Seth Low of New York, who is spoken of for one of the important diplomatic posts in the gift of President Roosevelt, has for years been a close friend and trusted adviser of the president. In the preliminary portion of the campaign of 1903 District Attorney Jerome in opposing Mr. Low's renomination for the mayoralty of New York, asserted that he was lacking in humor. Others denied this and declared that in the intercourse of city officials quips and wrangling were often averted by the mayor giving the conversation a humorous turn or quietly interjecting a joke. It is related that when he was president of Columbia university and shortly after he had given a million dollars for its library building a friend remonstrated with Mr. Low for being so generous and told him that if he kept on he would die a poor man. "Well," said Mr. Low, "Mrs. Low and I have talked the matter over. We have no children and we love our relatives too much to provoke them into a contest over my will."

Because he is reserved it has sometimes been said that Mayor Low is cold and unsympathetic, but numerous instances of his thoughtfulness for others and kindness to the unfortunate are held to prove the contrary. When his old grandfather, for whom he was named, lay dying, he sent for the ex-mayor, then a little boy, and as Seth knelt by the bedside put his hands on the child's head, saying, "Always be kind to the poor."

The grandson has carried out this command in quiet ways. Mrs. Low, too, has worked hand in hand with him. Not only money but time and thought have been given to the unfortunate, but their giving has been done in so unostentatious a way that the public knows little of its extent.

The Right Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., LL. D., the bishop of the Episcopal church against whom charges were brought in connection with his deposition of a former presbyter of his diocese, is one of the most popular men in his denomination, being a man of democratic ways and kindly manner who always enjoys a joke or a good story. He labored for eleven years as a missionary bishop in Wyoming and Idaho, visiting mining camps and Indian reservations and "roughing it" according to what fell to his lot. He was born in Fayette, Mo., in 1848, and graduated from Dartmouth college in 1870 and from the General Theological seminary in 1873. In the latter year he was ordained deacon and some months later was advanced to the priesthood, his first and only rectorship being that of St. James, Macon, Mo. He was in charge of this parish from 1873 to 1887, when he was consecrated missionary bishop. In 1897 he was transferred from Idaho and Wyoming to the diocese of central Pennsylvania, of which he is now head.

Some time ago Bishop Talbot deposed from the ministry, after a trial, one of the clergymen of his diocese, Rev. Dr. I. N. W. Irvine, who was in pastoral care of a mission at Huntingdon, Pa. The latter charged the bishop with misrepresentation of his character and caused a presentment embodying such an allegation to be forwarded to the presiding bishop of the American Episcopal church, the Right Rev. Dr. Tuttle of Missouri.

When the Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott declared in the Appleton chapel of Harvard university a few days ago, "I no longer believe in a great first cause," his remark was widely quoted and taken out of its context, created the impression that he had virtually renounced Christianity and belief in a personal divinity. But Dr. Abbott denies this, and that such a construction of his remark is wrong is seen from his statements further on in the same address when he declared: "There is only one energy. That energy has always been working. It is an intelligent energy. No scientist can deny it. It was working before Christ's time even as it is now.

For three years the clouds broke and the light flashed through. Then they closed again. Yet God has a personality. We recognize it as we recognize the personality of a Titan or an Angelo. Only God is always working, always creating, whereas their work is done."

Dr. Abbott says he has preached similar doctrine for the past fifteen years. In illustrating a statement that the Bible is the product of inspiration, but not dictation, Dr. Abbott once said: "I have a child at home who desires to write a letter to her mother. She asks my help and sits at the table with her pen or her pen in hand. 'What can I say to mamma?' Tell her where you went yesterday," I reply. "Oh, yes," she says, and then she writes. I went to a picnic in the woods yesterday with Susie and Mary and Johnny and Tom." And she works out a little account of the picnic, and then she comes to me again and I make another suggestion. I tell her now and then how to spell a word. I even occasionally correct her forms of expression and suggest a better method. When finally the letter is done it is her letter, but she has written it under my inspiration. The thoughts are partly mine, but she has made them her own."

Girl

Toilers

Gain Strength for Work

In office and factory, shop, store or kitchen girls are at work all over this land, and, alas! far beyond their strength. Young women who work are especially liable to female ills. Too often the girl is the bread winner of the family and she must toil unremittingly, no matter if her back does ache, her limbs and abdomen throb with dull pain and dragging sensations, and dizzy spells make her utterly unfit for work. These are the sure signs of female irregularities which kill beauty and youth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

builds health and strength for all women who work and are weary. It creates the vitality that makes work easy. From the thousands of grateful letters written by working girls to Mrs. Pinkham we quote the following:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and monthlies were irregular. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good.

Your medicine has made me well and strong, I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

MISS ABBY F. BARROWS, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio.

Oh, if American girls who work would only realize that they have but one life to live, and make the most of their precious health and strength!

Mrs. Pinkham extends to every working girl who is in ill health a cordial invitation to write her for advice. Such letters are always kept strictly confidential, and from her vast experience Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help you—and may save your life.

You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., April 24, 1906. When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.

A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her. I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

MID-WINTER SMOKER

Given by Newark Elks at Their Club Rooms on Tuesday Night Was in Every Respect a Most Gratifying Success--A Fine Banquet Served.

The mid-winter smoker given by Newark Lodge, No. 381, B. P. O. E., at the spacious quarters in the Oriskany block, on Tuesday evening, was perhaps the largest and best social function ever given the members of that lodge.

The smoker was given for the members of the lodge and each member was privileged to invite a guest out of the order.

In response to the invitation some 200 members of the lodge and their guests assembled to enjoy the famous hospitality of the lodge.

The diversions of the evening included a smokes, music, social conversation, card playing and a banquet. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Auditorium orchestra, which was delightfully rendered throughout the evening. Card playing and conversation was indulged in until 10:30 o'clock, when all present repaired to the banquet hall. Over 100 banquetters sat down to the handsomely appointed table, and a delicious menu, which comprised four courses, was elegantly served by Mr. Joseph Kuster. A second table was also well filled.

Mr. Ernest Johnson, the well known druggist, presided very gracefully as toastmaster over the banquet, introducing the ceremonies and festivities in a very appropriate speech.

Judge E. M. P. Brister was the first called upon, and he responded to the eleven o'clock toast, "Our Absent Brothers."

Mr. W. D. Fulton responded very appropriately to the toast "The Attractions of Elkdom."

J. R. Fitzgibbon responded very fittingly to the toast, "How to Look Wise."

George L. Warner, the inimitable raconteur, then entertained the company for some time with some of his unexcelled "Scenes by the Wayside, or Notes of Passing Travel."

Archie Davis concluded the speech-making with an eloquent address on "The Social Features of the Order."

The speech-making throughout was of a superior order of the Elkdom, mingling wit and wisdom, pathos and humor, and was highly enjoyed by all present.

"Auld Lang Syne" was then sung and the merry banquetters dispersed, having spent one of the pleasantest evenings of their lives.

FOREMAN TOOK BRIBES

For Which he Gave Men Employment in Mounting Shop of Wehrle Foundry--Henry Eisenbies Was Summarily Discharged After Investigation.

Henry Eisenbies, foreman of the mounters' shop at the Wehrle foundry, has been discharged by the company for irregularities. These consist of accepting bribes from foreigners in consideration of him giving them positions. His operations have been going on for probably two months, during which time he has had the hiring of men for his department. It was learned at the company's plant Wednesday morning that several men had been found, all Italians and Hungarians, who could speak hardly a word of English, who had paid Eisenbies from $2 to $1 to put them to work. The matter became known last Saturday. A man had been hired for the mounting room and was found wanting. He was transferred to the cupola and here he was also not up to the standard and was discharged. Eisenbies then again put him to work in the mounting room, and again he failed to come up to requirements, and was discharged. He then told that he had given Eisenbies $4 for his job. An investigation disclosed the fact that a number of men had done likewise and the foreman was accordingly discharged.

Rumors were current that there was a strike at the Wehrle foundry Wednesday morning which were absolutely unfounded.

The men found the shop too cold to work and a meeting was held and the men decided to lay off a day, instead of waiting an hour or two for the building to be heated up.

A change was being made in the leading system which was not completed by the time intended, but will be done today. Only the foundry on the south side was affected.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Is Feared By Health Officer Smith of Columbus--Ten New Cases in a Week.

Columbus, Jan. 25.—Health Officer Smith is becoming alarmed over the typhoid fever situation. Ten new cases of the disease have been reported in two days indicating the beginning of a possible epidemic. So far 21 new cases have been reported since January 14, all of them in the Scioto river hydrant district.

"By all means everybody should boil the water before they use it for drinking purposes," said Dr. Smith, Tuesday.

"For months," he continued, "we limited the ravages of the disease to the users of well water. During that time we were treating the hydrant water with a solution of copper sulphate. January 5 we discontinued the use of the copper and since that time, it appears, typhoid bacillus has reappeared in the river water."

The health officer said he would not resume the use of copper sulphate until instructed to do so by the service board or board of health.

All $14, $15 and $15.50 Overcoats at $12.00. The Great Western.

EXTRAORDINARY INVESTMENT

Sixteen Per Cent Secured by Flortgage

Messrs. Alva W. Wilcox and E. A. Bolton of this city, have secured an option on the land abutting the United States navy yard at Charleston, S. C., from the Chicora company of Norfolk, Va., with all of its improvements of power, water, trees and grand old sidewalks. This is the most complete monopoly in real estate that could be arranged. This property is situated about five miles from Charleston, the street car runs through its entire length, and within five years nearly five thousand mechanics will be employed by the government, or as nearly as many as all the factories in the city of Newark combined. At the present time there is not a dwelling within five miles of the navy yard, except negro cottages. The property secured about on the navy yard four thousand four hundred feet, and the gate of the yard opened into it. The history of all navy yards has been that they create cities about them in a very few years, as can be ascertained by referring to the yards at Newport News and Puget Sound.

By these terms of their contract they have bound their lives to raise $1,000 for the purpose of erecting houses and making improvements. To do this they offer to the people of Newark an opportunity to realize a handsome profit on their money which may be subscribed in amounts of $100 or more, which need not be paid until April 1, 1905, although if they desire to make a subscription it should be done at once, as we anticipate that the amount will be rapidly subscribed and no more than that amount will be taken.

We can offer to subscribers a 16 per cent investment secured by mortgage on real estate with the additional added security that property mortgaged will be the first improved by building on the same with the money subscribed. We have made a personal investigation of this property and been all over it. Mr. Wilcox desires to meet a number of good mechanics of the different building trades of this city, who might be desirous of going south, as they can be seen the year around and made possible.

Parties desiring further information on this matter may call at our office, No. 1112 East side of square, where we have pictures of the property and the navy yard.

BOPE RESIGNS

HANDS DOCUMENTS TO VESTRY TUESDAY AFTERNOON

And It Is Promptly Accepted to Take Effect February 1—Will Soon Go to New York.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 25.—Tuesday afternoon Rector F. W. Bope gave his resignation to Dr. R. P. McCowan, secretary of the St. James' parish, and the resignation was formally accepted by the vestrymen at a meeting held at Dr. McCowan's office.

As stated in the vestrymen's communication, the resignation was made voluntarily by Rector Bope, who has stated that he thought it best to leave St. James church.

Dr. McCowan was asked for the complete text of the resignation, but this he refused to give. It is thought that the vestrymen were expecting the resignation to be made, owing to statements made by the rector a few days ago, and the assertion that he had tendered his resignation to the archdeacon, who took it home to Cincinnati with him Saturday evening.

Rector Bope was called by telephone last evening, but he could not be reached. On account of many telephone calls at night, he has been in the practice lately of avoiding inconvenience by letting down the receiver.

It is expected by the rector's friends that he will leave in a few days for New York City, where he has had several flattering offers to enter journalism.

Resignation in Bishop's Hands. Cincinnati, Jan. 25.—Bishop Ford Vincent returned yesterday from Pittsburg, where he attended the gold on jubilee of the church over which he was formerly rector.

The Bishop did not have time to peruse the letter of resignation from the ministry which Rev. F. W. Bope had sent to him from Zanesville through the instrumentality of Archdeacon Edwards. The Bishop said that if Mr. Bope had sent in such a resignation it would be promptly accepted. According to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal church such a resignation from the ministry is performed in presence of two priests as witnesses. The deposition means simply that the clerk is dispensed in the future of the active duties of the ministry—it does not mean excommunication, or that the petitioner shall not in the future enjoy the spiritual and religious privileges of the Episcopal church.

Whether or not the Bishop will grant the simple deposition, leaving

Rev. Mr. Bope a member of the Episcopal church in good standing, is a question, and will depend very much on the testimony that is on hand to show that he was not guilty of the charges alleged to have been made by Mr. Gibbs.

LEGS SCALDED

HARRY WAGNER SLIPPED INTO BARREL OF BOILING WATER

And Up to the Knees He Was Badly Scalded—Injuries Considered Serious.

Harry Wagner, aged 18, son of Mr. Nick Wagner of Fine street, met with a painful and serious accident at the Newark Gearwood company plant on Williams street, about 7 o'clock, Wednesday morning. The unfortunate man had gone to the works to see his friend John Walker, who is employed there, and accidentally walked into a barrel of hot water, the barrel being sunk in the ground and the opening obscured by clouds of steam.

The scalding of water was up to Wagner's knees, and the flesh on both legs was almost cooked up to that point. He was taken home and Dr. W. E. Wiyiarch was called who did all in his power to alleviate the lad's sufferings.

The physician considers Wagner's injuries serious, but not necessarily dangerous.

He died at the City hospital. He was working on a ladder when it turned and threw him into the vat. He was 34 years old.

THIEVES BROKE INTO THE PUBLIC SCHOOL HOUSE

And Secured a Small Amount of Booty—Uncle Josh Perkins Delights Big Audience.

Granville, O., Jan. 25.—Several nights ago thieves gained entrance to the public school building, which they thoroughly ransacked, and carried off many articles, including compasses, fountain pens, lead pencils and pens. Judging by the tracks in the snow there were evidently two of the robbers. The thieves went through the desk of Miss Clara McDonald, one of the high school teachers, and in their hurried search overlooked a pocket-book containing a small amount of money. Superintendent Coons has a clue to the identity of the thieves, and arrests may follow.
